OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 30 June 1975

1. [REDACTED] Charles Kirbow, of the Senate Select Committee staff, called and said he would be at the Agency almost every day for the next few weeks and he would like to get together with me to talk about areas of mutual interest.

2. [REDACTED] Jack Boos, staff of the House Select Committee called and said he has been led to believe that the future of the House Committee would be determined next week when Congress returns from the 4th of July recess. He said it would appear at the moment that the Committee will be either reconstructed or abolished completely. He said they wouldn't be able to do much in the meantime, but he wondered if those people on the staff who have been cleared might receive briefings of relatively low classification level on Agency organization and functions. I expressed some reservations about this in view of the unsettled status of the Committee. I told him that I would talk to the Director about it. He said the only staffers he expected to be involved were Gregory Rushford, Emily Sheketoff, both of whom he could vouch for and himself. He said he doubted that the Staff Director, Searle Field would be present. I told Boos that I would want to talk to the Director about this before giving him an answer.
